“Ab India Sochega Percentage Mein”

Your favourite superstar, Salman Khan wants you to play a simple game with him and win as much as you can. All you have to do is think like India. You will be asked a question, whose answer is an average percentage of a mass opinion poll conducted across India. If your guess is close to India's collective opinion, you begin to win, starting from ten thousand rupees. Thereafter, every question answered 'right' makes you win or loose by the power of ten.

It's that simple... and this big!
Just 5 questions to a mammoth 10 Crores.

....Are you game?

Salman Khan is looking for those true Indians, who know what is the pulse of the nation!

“Aur Salman ke saath nahin khela tou kya khela?”
