HIT ME BABY, ONE MORE TIME...

BHOOMI Trivedi is not new to Indian Idol. In fact, she had auditioned for the show two years back and even got selected but was evicted during the theatre round. She now returns to Indian Idol 5 with the determination of winning the show.

At the audition, she performed the song, Babul ki aur suno liye... After she finished with the song, Salim and Anu Malik asked her to sing the same song in a Western style. Bhoomi then suggested performing another song in Gujarati, but in the Spice Girls Wannabe song style.

Bhoomi presented a unique mix of rap and hip hop in Gujarati which left the judges spellbound and she got her ticket for the next round. What remains to be seen is whether Bhoomi's superb singing style will leave the same mark on the viewers in the coming days.

Tune in to Indian Idol 5 starting April 26th at 9 pm, only on Sony Entertainment Television.
