

KBC 4, FINALLY!

The new season of Kaun Banega Crorepati is finally being announced today with Big B as host. The event at a Juhu five-star is at 4 pm followed by cocktails and dinner. It is slated to be the longest ever media meet (are they planning to enter the record books for the longest ever press conference held?). The show is slated to air around September-October.

NB: The show was to be announced immediately after Raavan's release. The invites were sent but it was cancelled a day before as Big B had decided to stay put in London after the film's debacle!
